STUDENTS PRESENT OPERETTA

A large audience attending the Waleria P-TA meeting last Thursday night, April 14, enjoyed the original operetta "The Gingerbread Man" presented by Mrs. Fern Springer's first grade.

The children were all in costume and during the play a chorus of 19 boys and girls sang and danced. The stage settings were made by the class.

During the business meeting delegates were elected to attend the district convention in Whittier today, April 21. They are Mmes. Hector Herrera, C. D. Jackson, W. T. Allen, Carl Cramer, E. B. Pfau, C. W. Johnson, and Fred White.

A ways and means report given by Mrs. Harold Wrigley announced that a paper drive will be given on May 5 at the school and magazines will be accepted for this drive. The association voted to donate $50 towards the financing of the high school graduation party.

Mrs. Allen announced that the annual kindergarten round-up will be held on May 9 through the 13 and that anyone able to help please contact her. Mrs. Johnson was named as a delegate to the State Convention with Mrs. Pfau named as an alternate.

Letters were read from the mother and sister of the late Miss Virginia Stallings, former teacher at Waleria, thanking the association for the honor given to her. The new portable library at the school has been named the Virginia Stallings Memorial Library.

A Parent Education report by Miss Mary Barrett told of the recent Civil Defense meeting held at the school.

The inspirational message was given by Emily Dana, and refreshments were served by 5th grade mothers.

BIRTHDAY LUNCHEON FOR JANIS CAMPAZZIE

Celebrating her fifth birthday Sunday with a luncheon, was Janis Campazzie, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph M. Campazzie of 2763 Sonoma avenue.

With Janis' daddy at home to assist with the games, a great time was had by small guests Connie Freeman, Colleen, Judy, and Jill O'Hara, Bonnie Dalton, Debbie Atherton, and Sylvia Ann and Debbie Egger. Also participating were Janis' brothers and sisters, Lynette, Wayne, Kent, and Carl.

Although too young to participate, 11-month-old brother Carl and tiny Debbie Egger enjoyed the excitement, everyone agreed.

Also present were the Egger children's grandmother and aunt, Mrs. Alice Egger and Miss Helen Arellano of San Salvador.

Parent Education Classes Begin At Crenshaw School

A busy and active local P-TA unit during the month of April is the Crenshaw P-TA. One of its current programs is a series of parent education classes which began Tuesday, April 19.

The lectures being held on four consecutive Tuesdays, are open to the public, and begin at 7:45 p.m. "Understanding the School Age Child" is the title of the series, last Tuesday's lecture being "What Children Need from Parents" by Donald McNasser, professor of education of Claremont graduate school.

Next Tuesday, April 26, Mrs. Eleanor Hempel, star of the TV "Little Schoolhouse," will speak. Child care is provided during the session through the cooperation of the Carr, El Nido, Perry, and North Torrance schools.

Delegates to Convention Crenshaw elementary school P-TA delegates attending the 33rd District convention at Whittier today, April 21, are Mmes. Clint Chapman, William Drake, O'Dell Faubus, William Skiles, John Ruckie, and Dane Walker.

The P-TA executive board met yesterday, April 20, at Mrs. Ruckie's home, at which time plans for the installation of officers for the coming year were made.

A Magician Show was held at Crenshaw school on Friday, April 9, with two shows one at 7 p.m. and one at 8 p.m.

Winners in the recent Crenshaw elementary paper drive were announced with Kenneth Blake, first; Mrs. Meurel O'dell, second; and Mrs. Bernice McMahon, third; all in the upper grades. Lower grades listed Mrs. Fern Dooley, first; Mrs. Ursula Wallace, second; and Mrs. Sue Hamilton's room, third.

It was announced that several

Parents' Nite Held by Boy Scout Troop

Torrance Boy Scout Troop 241 will hold a parent's night tonight, Thursday evening, April 21 at St. Andrews Episcopal church.

A court of honor will be conducted to present awards earned by the boys during the previous three months. The meeting will commence at 7:30 p.m. and all parents are urged to attend. Refreshments will be served by the Mother's club at the conclusion of the meeting.

Members of Troop 241 are formulating plans to attend the annual Harbor District Camporee to be held at mineral wells in Griffith Park the week-end of April 30.

The theme this year will be "Kit Carson Camping" and will feature competition between troop patrols in the various camping skills such as the use of the compass, fire making with flint and steel and cooking on charcoal stoves. The troop will leave Torrance early Saturday morning and return Sunday afternoon.

SHUFFLEBOARD

The Glendale Shuffleboard Club is planning to be in Torrance on Saturday at 10 a.m. to play the Torrance Shuffleboard Club. About thirty are expected visitors will be here from 10 a.m. to 3 p.m. The Torrance club is planning to go to Santa Monica on Saturday, April 30.
